We’re proud to participate in Competing in Goodness 2026!

From October 18 through November 1, congregations across our community will come together for a friendly competition with a meaningful goal: collecting food for our neighbors.

Competing in Goodness is about more than filling boxes. It’s about showing up for one another, building community and turning generosity into action.

Whether you donate a few pantry staples, organize a collection at your congregation or invite someone else to participate, every contribution can help make a difference.

We're participating in Competing in Goodness 2026!

From October 18 through November 1, we're joining congregations across our community in a friendly food drive competition, all with one shared goal: helping our neighbors.
We invite you to be part of it. Donate shelf-stable food items, encourage your friends and family to participate, or help us spread the word.

Every item collected is an opportunity to support someone in our community. Together, we can turn a little friendly competition into a whole lot of goodness.

Subject Line: One Week Left to Compete In Goodness!

Hi Everyone,

We're already one week through with Competing in Goodness! This year, we are one of 40 congregations donating food to local food pantries. No matter what the end result is, we all win because we've helped our neighbors, and you have been a part of that.

The more people who join in this week, the bigger the impact we can make together. Let's finish Competing in Goodness on a strong foot!
